Gale Beach

Gale Beach has a passion for teaching.

My passion in missions is teaching. I am leading an addictions recovery group and witnessing Christ changing hearts as people rebuild their lives.

One of my most memorable moments on the mission field was watching students at the European Theological Seminary from as many as 20 different countries come together to worship in unity. Jesus prayed “Father make them one.” Differences were cast aside as they prayed together for the lost throughout the world.

Categories: Missionaries, Missionaries - Europe