We have served for 32 years in the Middle East, leading several congregations and managing Christian Radio stations broadcasting in Arabic.

Currently on furlough in the United States taking care of a widowed mother, we minister in local churches raising awareness of the continued need for missions to various people groups.

We continue to serve on two of our ministry boards guiding both church and school ministries in the Middle East. We also provide essential services by relating to foreign governmental bodies, making requests of visas for our workers which enable them to serve in the region, and filing reports in a foreign language which are required to maintain our good standing.

We were married in 1979 and have two grown children.
