Product Description

Jon and Gey Loudermilk live in Chiang Mai, Thailand where they help to rescue children from sex trafficking. They also evangelize the surrounding areas.

My name is Jon, and this is my wife Gey. We are missionaries in Thailand. We live in Chiang Mai. My wife has been in Thailand all of her life and I have been there since 2017.

Before moving to Thailand, I lived in 17 other countries doing ministry including United Arab Emirates, Israel, Côte d'Ivoire, Ghana, Ethiopia, India, Nepal, Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar, Malaysia, China, South Korea, Honduras, Guatemala, El Salvador, and Canada.

God called me back to Southeast Asia to rescue children from sex trafficking. It was in the year 2017 that God allowed me to start a nonprofit called Promised Land Ministries. Promised Land Ministries commits to rescuing those that are in or are at risk of being sex trafficked, restoring the lives of those involved in the sex industry, and equipping the children of God practically and spiritually so that they may be released into their promised land.

As of this year, 2022, we have rescued almost 30 children. We are planning to rescue more and expand. When they come to be with us we teach them different trades, personal finance, English, but most of all the Word of God. We also teach them about worship and how to play instruments.

Not only do we help the children but we also do evangelism and discipleship in the Hill Tribe villages. The population of Thailand is less than one percent Christian. We want to bring the Gospel wherever we go. God is doing a great work in Thailand, and we would love for you to be a part of it. Join us and help us build God's Kingdom in Southeast Asia. You can also contact us if you are interested in mission trips.
