Jack and Mary-Margaret Morris

Jack and Mary-Margaret Morris have a long relationship with Church of God World Missions and currently serve as opportunity arises.

Our focus of service has been as overseer and church planter, serving abroad in Kenya, Botswana, and Australia. We also served as pastor of a Christian servicemen’s center in Germany and established and served as pastor of a Christian servicemen’s center in Turkey. We currently minister as opportunities arise.

Jack was called to missions at the age of 14 in a youth camp. Mary-Margaret, age 12, heard the song, “I’ll Go Where You Want Me to Go,” and her heart was pierced. She says, "I made a commitment to serve God wherever He sent me." That commitment still stands strong today.

Our most memorable moment as missionaries was about three months after we arrived in Kenya. Our 7-year old son, Derek, came out on the veranda to “enjoy the night.” I almost sent him back into the house as I was thinking about some of the challenges that I was facing in the church. Instead, I welcomed him. He climbed upon my lap and began asking questions about salvation. That night I had the joy of leading my son to salvation in Christ.

Categories: Missionaries, Missionaries - At Large