Christopher and Jennifer Ray

Christopher and Jennifer Ray evangelize and train leaders in the Caribbean and Latin America.

I am currently serving in pastoral ministry in Fulton, MS at Open Door Worship Center (27 years). While in ministry the last 33 years I've had the opportunity to help establish seven different churches in the Mississippi, New York City, and Jamaica. As a regional Bishop, I've had the privilege of teaching students in Bible college. From 2000 onward, I have been a chaplain for the department of corrections. Since 2003, I have also had the privilege of serving in different countries by evangelizing, preaching the Gospel, and training the next generation of leaders.

At OWDC, I serve alongside my wife, Jennifer, and my two daughters and their husbands. I'm also a regional bishop in Ministerial International Institute where I teach biblical studies to students. I have been Travelling overseas to different countries for 23 years, we've built churches in taught students the word of God.

I have had the privilege to lead thousands in prison ministry to Christ over the past 27 years. I have also baptized over 1,000 inmates. I've watched the blinded eyes open and seen the lame walk again in my missions overseas to third world countries.

Categories: Missionaries, Missionaries - Caribbean