Brandon & Natasha Whitt

Brandon and Natasha Whitt are interns with a passion to serve orphans in the Kibera slum in Kenya.

Brandon and Natasha Whitt, along with their children Arianna, Evalina, and James, have a passion to spread the love of Jesus to the orphan children of Africa. Of the 153 million orphans worldwide, Africa has 52 million of those orphans. We are raising money for the family’s cost of living while we spend a year in Africa learning and preparing for long-term ministry.
