The First 100 Days of the 365 Challenge

More than 3.37 billion people have not heard the name Jesus. The clock is ticking... with each passing day, we are closer than ever to the return of our Lord and Savior.

From the moment the International General Assembly elected Dr. M. Thomas Propes as the General Director of World Missions, the 365 Challenge was launched. The 365 Challenge takes advantage of each day on the calendar to ensure the Good News of the Gospel is sent to those who have not yet heard.

Church of God World Missions is approaching the 100-day mark of this administration. Already, thousands of hours of concentrated prayer have been activated globally, and tens of thousands of dollars have been invested in the mission field. The 365 Challenge has brought the global Church of God into alignment with God's heart for the harvest, as we work together to finish the Great Commission.

Under the direction of Dr. Propes and Dr. Childers, much has been accomplished in the first 100 days. Through the 365 Challenge, we have focused our efforts upon the physical, material, and spiritual needs of humanity.

The final success of our initial efforts will be measured in Heaven. Preliminary results, however, show that the 365 Challenge is already making a significant difference. In just the first 100 days, at least 38,000 have come to know the Lord as their Savior, while 282 life-giving churches have been planted by World Missions, globally. God is on the move, and we are excited to see what He will do as we continue to carry out the 365 Challenge.

Reports are being received daily as to what God is doing through our efforts. Hurricane relief...Relocation of orphanages outside war-torn areas...Food and supplies shipped into areas ravaged by war...Construction of medical facilities in Africa...and the list goes on and on.

Church of God World Missions will not stop until all have heard of the love of Jesus Christ. The goal to evangelize the world could be reached in this generation! The 365 Challenge has proven in just 100 days how much can be accomplished when our efforts are focused.

Will you join us in the 365 Challenge?

We need your prayers and your financial support. Our efforts will fail without a constant prayer covering. But we also need financial support to effectively deliver the Good News of Jesus Christ. Our internal statistics show that for every $15 given to World Missions, we see a soul saved. It is a small price to pay for eternal salvation. Please join us by making a contribution at www.coAgwm.org to the 365 Challenge. Your partnership is vital. Join us today as we move past the first 100 days and see the 365 Challenge accomplished.
